A WORD WRITTEN BY LORI BOUCHER

AN INVITATION FROM JESUS

There is an invitation. Do you hear it?

An invitation to come, to come to Jesus, to be where He is. This is the invitation...

Will you follow me? He asks, Will you follow where I lead you? Do you trust that what I have in store for you is good? Even if it's hard? Do you believe that every good and perfect gift is from me? Will you allow me to define what is good and perfect?

My invitation leads to life. It's a pathway to a life far beyond this world but you must trust me. I want to walk this journey with you. I want to be with you. In the joys and the sorrows, I want to be with you. I already am, I am with you always, even to the ends of the earth.

Every day is a new invitation. Will you open it? Will you come to me? Will you come and be with me? In my presence is fullness of joy. In my presence, there is peace. In my presence is found all that you will ever need. My presence in my provision. What do you need? You will find it in my presence.

AN INVITATION FROM JESUS

Come to me, lay down all of your asks, wants, and desires. Lay them down at the foot of my cross and let me fulfill the true longings of your heart. You see, I know you even better than you know yourself.

Stay with me for a while.

Rest here.

Slow down.

Breathe.

Be with me.

I am here, I am with you, I am closer than the mention of my name.

I invite you into my kingdom

I invite you to come to me, follow me

I have something I want to show you

Will you trust me?

I only have good for you, but you must let me define good. My good for you will only be found in complete and utter reliance on me. You must lay down your self-reliance, self-sufficiency, perfectionism, performance, striving, need to please others, fear of man, and will. You must die to self and all that is self-motivated in you. You must humble yourself and lay down everything you think you cannot live without.

AN INVITATION FROM JESUS

The road is hard and narrow, and few will find it. This is not because I have made it too hard for you, it's because there is only one way to life. There is only one way to find the truest desire of your soul. So many say, it's too hard, it's too much, I cannot do it, I will not do it, and so they settle for less than what is possible in my presence. Many want to hang on to the things they believe they cannot live without, but this is a lie from the father of lies to try and keep you from my perfect provision.

You can lay down your fears in my presence. You can lay down your pain, your past, all the wrongs that have been done to you, and all the wrongs you have done. You can give me your burdens, worries, and disappointments; you don't have to hold onto them anymore.

Stay with me for a while.
Rest here.
Slow down.
Breathe.
Be with me.
I am here.
I am with you.
I am closer than the mention of my name.

The Word of God gives us so much guidance as to how to love our husbands well, how to instil His principles in our marriages and how to become the wives He calls us to be. A CALL TO BEING

WORKSHOP

HOW TO WRITE A CALL TO BEING STATEMENT

Our first calling is a call to BEING. The calling into BEING is an invitation to anchor to a deeper place into your primary identity as simply belonging to Jesus before stepping into the DOING side of your purpose. You are first called to be SOMEONE. And then called to do SOMETHING.

Step 1

Identify and write down a few key scriptures that have been important to you or meaningful to you over your lifetime.

Step 2

Read over the scriptures you have written and pull out of them some keywords that reflect your desire for your relationship with God. Why are these verses important to you?

Step 3

Write a statement of being that clarifies your heart's desire for your relationship with God, not a list of intentions or to-dos. Start your statement with: I desire, I am passionate to, I long to, etc.

Clarifying Questions for your Statement

Is your statement focused on being or doing?

Does it point to why you exist?

Does it reflect the heart of God for you?

Does it reflect what God desires from you?

Does this statement anchor you into deeper purpose?

FREEDOM PRAYERS & SCRIPTURES

STAYING FREE

“For freedom, Christ has set us free; stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.” Galatians 5:1 Now that you have received freedom, there is an ongoing battle to stay free. Staying free requires you to walk in obedience to God and His word. Here are steps to take to walk in your newfound freedom.

Spend Personal Time with the Lord Daily In the Word

Set aside time daily to speak to the Lord and to nurture your relationship with Him. This is the key to a healthy Christian Life. Read the Word daily, even if it is a few sentences, and invite the Holy Spirit to teach you as you read. “For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart.” (Hebrews 4:12)

Submit to God Daily

Daily submit your will and desires to God in prayer. “Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.” (James 4:7-8)

FREEDOM PRAYERS & SCRIPTURES

STAYING FREE

Take Authority When Attacks Come

At the first sign of an attack, take authority over it in the name of Jesus simply by saying out loud:

"I take authority over _____ in the name of Jesus, and I command it to leave, thank you Lord that You have provided me abundant life." "Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you." (Luke 10:19)

Renew Your Mind and Put On the New Self

Pay attention to what you are thinking about, and don't entertain thoughts that don't please the Lord.

"For as he thinks in his heart, so is he." (Proverbs 23:7)

"We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ,"

(2 Corinthians 10:5)

Learn to Refuse Temptation

If sinners entice you, do not consent. "God is faithful, and He will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation, He will also provide a way of escape, that you may be able to endure it." (Proverbs 1:10)

Keep a Life of Repentance

Get rid of recurring sin from the root and practice a lifestyle of repenting of anything that is not from God. Jesus came to give you life more abundantly so don't live with anything less than His grace-filled gift of life.

Stay Connected to Community

The more involved and connected you are, the more love and support you will have when you need it.

Testify

Share your story of freedom with others. We overcome by the blood of the lamb and the word of our testimony (Revelation 12:11)

Forgiveness

Showing forgiveness to others can be one of the most difficult things we face in life. However, it is imperative to our healing process. In these verses, we are reminded of how God's grace and mercy have redeemed us, and our sins have been forgiven through the blood that was shed on the cross. Surely, if God is able to forgive us, then we can show the same mercy to others.

Ephesians 4:31-32 "Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you."

FREEDOM PRAYERS & SCRIPTURES

Matthew 18: 21-22 "Then Peter came up and said to him, "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times?" Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you seven times, but seventy-seven times."

Mark 11:25, 1 Corinthians 13:4-6, Colossians 3:13, Luke 17:3-4, 1 John 1:9, Isaiah 43:25, Colossians 1:13-14, Psalm 103:12, Hebrews 10:17, 1 Corinthians 13:4-6, Ephesians 1:7

Repentance

Followers of Christ need to walk a daily lifestyle of repentance, to not only get free, but to stay free.

Acts 3:19 "Repent, then, and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out, that times of refreshing may come from the Lord,"

Bedtime Prayer

Thank You Lord, that You have brought me into Your family and have blessed me with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms. Thank You for providing this time of renewal through sleep. I accept it as part of Your perfect plan for Your children and I trust You to guard my mind and my body during my sleep. As I have meditated on You and Your truth during the day, I choose to let these thoughts continue in my mind while I am asleep. I commit myself to You and Your protection from every attempt of the enemy or his emissaries to attack me during my sleep. I commit myself to You as my rock, my fortress and my resting place. I pray all this in the strong name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Daily Prayer

Dear Heavenly Father, I honour You as my Sovereign Lord, I acknowledge that You are always present with me. You are the only all-powerful and only wise God. You are kind and loving in all Your ways.

I love You and thank You that I am united with Christ and spiritually alive in Him. I choose not to love the world, and I crucify the flesh and all its passions. I thank you for the life that I now have in Christ, and I ask You to fill me with Your Holy Spirit that I may live my life free from sin.

FREEDOM PRAYERS & SCRIPTURES

STAYING FREE

I declare my dependence upon You, and I take my stand against the enemy and all their lying ways. I choose to believe the truth, and I refuse to be discouraged. You are the God of all hope, and I am confident that You will meet my needs as I seek to live according to Your Word.

I express with confidence that I can live a responsible life through Christ who strengthens me. I now take my stand against the enemy and command him and all his evil spirits to depart from me. I put on the whole armour of God. I submit my body as a living sacrifice and renew my mind by the living Word of God in order that I may prove that the will of God is good, acceptable and perfect. I ask these things in the precious name of my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE ESTHER DECLARATION

“For if you remain completely silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Yet who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?” (Esther 4:14)

Come Alive - Ephesians 5:14

Mordecai challenges her to awaken from her comfortable place in the culture to kingdom purpose, reminding her of who she is—her true identity and gives her a charge to face the enemy full on.

We are not here, in this generation, at this time by accident. We are here by divine purpose on assignment for an appointed time; to bring life where there is death, to share the good news of hope to a lost and dying world. Our assignment is to build God's kingdom on earth with Him. Your kingdom come, Your Will be done.

Walk in Boldness & Courage - Acts 4:27

We see through the chapters that Esther has lived in humility, submissive to Mordecai, heeding instructions from Hegai, but notice in chapter 4 v. 16, Esther rises up in her authority and sends a message to Mordecai to gather the Jews and fast for 3 days. All authority, strength, courage and boldness we need is IN CHRIST. He is the Power. It is through Him that we can do all things because He strengthens us: strong in the Lord and in the Power of His Might.

Favour for your assignment – Isaiah 61:3; Psalm 102:13; Psalm 84:11

God's favour positioned her divine destiny, in spite of her tragic past; it prepared her for this moment. She remained faithful in the process: tender, obedient, and teachable. Not only would she be instrumental in saving a nation but she would lead a charge in breaking the generational curse of Saul's rebellion and sin. (1 Samuel 15:22-23).

No matter what your past was like, God is able to restore and redeem. God has been preparing you through the bitter years for this moment. You have come through the oil of myrrh in preparation for this moment – Esther had a teachable heart, surrendered life, prayerful heart; she relied on God and has become a fragrance of prudence, wisdom and discretion.

Rewrite the Decree (Colossians 2:15)

Haman had written a decree to destroy, kill and annihilate all the Jews and plunder their goods. It was a decree Esther could not cancel but could overturn with a New Decree: (Esther 8:1-13), one that gave them the right to assemble, protect themselves and to destroy the enemy and plunder their goods.

John 10:10 says the enemy comes to steal, kill and destroy, but Jesus overturns it and says “I have come that you may have life and have it to the full.”

Jesus cancelled all decrees against us at the cross (Colossians 2:15). Satan is defeated, for Jesus has given us the Victory; we need only lay hold and enforce His Word from a place of Victory. We have the Authority in His Word and His power to cause the truths of the heavenly realm to manifest into the natural realm. His Word says “You will declare a thing and it will be established for you and the light of God’s favour shall shine upon your ways.” (Job 22:28). Let’s overturn decrees and re-write new decrees in Jesus’ Name. Amen.

Father God, we thank You for today, it is the day that You have made and we rejoice and are glad in You. We thank You that we are alive at such a time, part of a generation in advancing Your kingdom here on earth. We humble ourselves before you in awe, and we heed to Your call to Come Alive. We will not remain silent at this time, we want to be part of what You are doing now on the earth. Use us for the glory of Your Name, we will be women who cry out until the knowledge of Your glory covers the earth as the waters the seas (Habakkuk 2:14). LORD, You created us for greatness. LORD, we declare today is the day of salvation – Your Word says that You have given us every place we set our foot and today we step out in faith in the areas of health, provision, healing and in Jesus' Name we take authority over the areas of health and wholeness of body, mind and spirit (Joshua 1:3). Lord we ask for wisdom, strategies, discernment, thank You that our strength, courage and boldness are In Christ Jesus, in Him we can do all things; we declare that we are strong in the LORD and the power of His might to overcome (Ephesians 6:10). I HAVE NEW LIFE FOR YOU A WORD FROM JESUS

My grace is sufficient for you for my power has been made perfect in weakness. You are weak but I have everything you need for abundant life in every area. Yield to me, rest in me, receive my healing and let it wash over you.

You need to get rid of some things and make room for more of me. Let me sweep you clean, let me go in and clean out everything that is not from me - everything that you do not need. Don't be afraid, although some of it may be painful, you have to trust that I am making all things new.

Do you want a new life? I have a new life for you. Will you trust me? Will you allow me to make everything new? I want to make new that which can never be taken from you. External change is temporal, it never addresses the heart. Let me give you a new life from the inside. Don't look left or right, keep your eyes fixed on me and I will lead you; I will do what you cannot do. You cannot be everything you desire but if you fully surrender and lay it all down, I will take over and show you everything you need to do. I want to be so close to you that you are abiding completely in me and I in you. I love you and I am with you, I created you for a relationship with me. I put my spirit in you so that you could do things that were supernatural.

Your flesh wants to run, to leave everything, but today that is not what I need from you. I need you to worship me, I need you to pray about everything, never stop. I need you to walk with me and I will show you the way of life. Every day I am inviting you into something new; something you will never find apart from me. Every day I want you to see that I am doing things in and through your life that would never be possible on your own.

Do you wonder how it can all get done? Well, you cannot do it on your own, but if you rest in me, wait on me, I will show you the way. I will bring the people whom I am calling to play their part in the body. There is actually more for you, more to come but don't put your own picture of what you think more is. My more is never the same as your idea of more. My more is perfect and pure and my more for you enables you to do what is impossible in the natural.

DO YOU WANT A NEW LIFE?

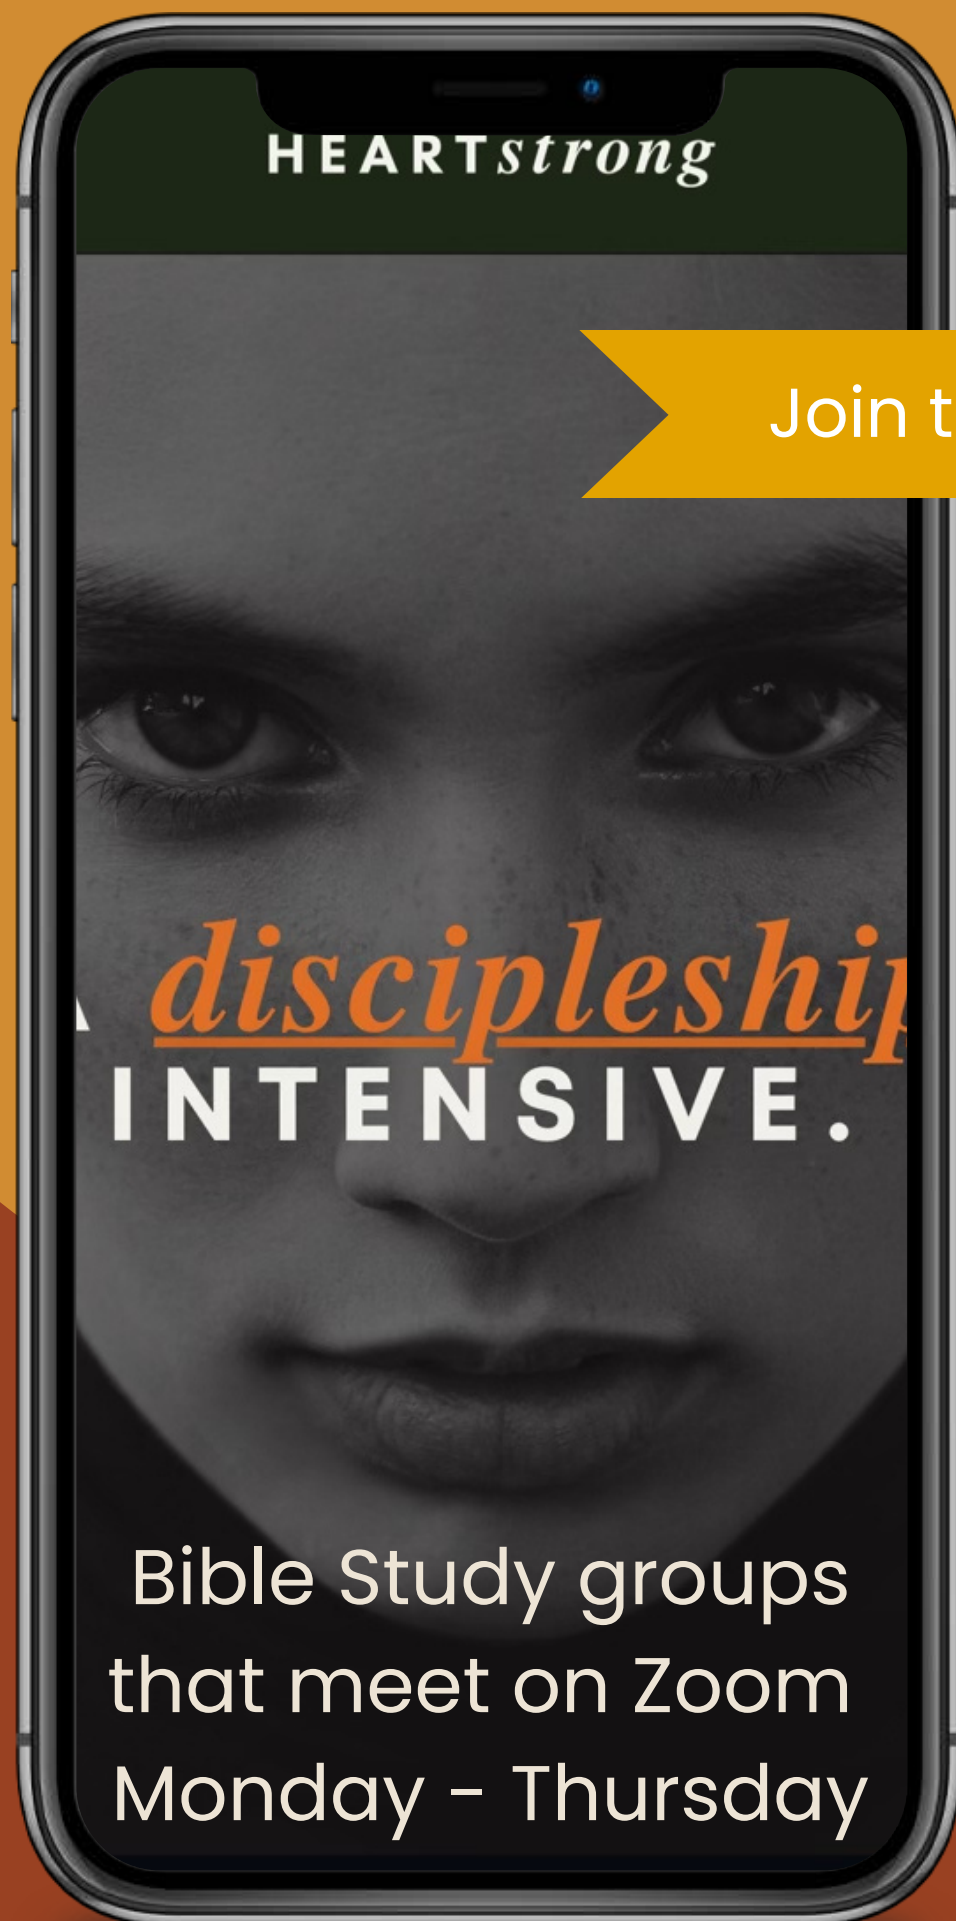

You are not going to get it perfectly. That was never the goal. But I am here, don't run ahead of me, and don't push me away. Don't hide from me when you are struggling or sad or hurting, I am here and I want to lead you through it. The new life you seek is only found in me. I want you, I want to do life with you. I want to give you new life every day. Keep your eyes fixed firmly on me. I have got you.
